INTRODUCTION

Position is located in the Command Analysis and Planning Office of the U.S. Army Simulation, Training and Instrumentation Command (STRICOM), a major subordinate command of the U.S. Army Materiel Command (AMC). The mission of STRICOM is to provide centralized management and direction for all research, development, acquisition and fielding of Army training devices, simulations, simulators, test and training instrumentation, targets threat simulators and Advanced Distributed Simulation (ADS). The mission includes cradle to grave life cycle acquisition beginning with tech base programs and following through with each phase of the acquisition process. The Commander centrally directs, coordinates and supports the materiel development, acquisitions and sustainment activities through the functional matrix organization and four project managers.

MAJOR DUTIES

1. Serves as STRICOM's functional expert in the tenets of the National Performance Review (NPR), Government Performance & Results Act (GPRA) and DOD Reinvention Laboratory initiatives. As such is charged with improving the effectiveness of command processes and operations throughout STRICOM. Focusing on results, quality and customer service, sets goals, measures performance and reports progress on goals. Represents STRICOM at National, DoD and Army level conferences relating to NPR, GPRA, quality and Reinvention initiatives. 40%

2. Drives the command's internal strategic planning process towards achieving the goals and visions set forth by the STRICOM leadership. Plans, coordinates and directs an Annual Strategic Planning Off-site to provide an annual forum to review the command's vision, mission statement, and develop strategic goals and performance measures for the coming year. Further conducts quarterly and monthly Executive Steering Committee (ESC) meetings to evaluate progress on goals and discuss and decide issues related to command performance on goals. Produces outputs/products of this process, communicating information and decisions as directed by STRICOM leadership. 40%

3. Interacts directly with the Army Materiel Command (AMC) to obtain guidance and insure compliance with the headquarters strategic and business planning models. As such is responsible for publication and presentation of the command's annual strategic and business plan(s). 20%

Performs other duties as assigned.

FACTOR 1. KNOWLEDGE REQUIRED BY THE POSITION

- FL 1-8 - 1550 POINTS

- Expert knowledge of both qualitative and quantitative analytical management methods.
- Comprehensive knowledge of the principles of organizational behavior.
- In-depth knowledge of the National Performance Review and Government Performance & Results Act.
- Knowledge in all phases of Strategic and Business Planning.
- Expert knowledge and understanding of the DoD Materiel Acquisition Process, to include a demonstrated working knowledge of the DOD 5000 series documents, the FAR, and AR 70-1.
- Keen awareness and comprehensive understanding of the mission, doctrine, and strategy of the Army, AMC and STRICOM.
- Expert skills and understanding of the automated database systems to integrate their use and acceptance into STRICOM's everyday business practices.
- In-depth knowledge of the military Command structure, missions, programs and organizational relationships.

FACTOR 2. SUPERVISORY CONTROLS - FL 2-4 - 450 POINTS

Incumbent works under the general supervision of the Chief of Strategic Planning and Program Development. As such, incumbent works independently and work is reviewed only for attainment of objectives and program goals.

FACTOR 3. GUIDELINES - FL 3-4 - 450 POINTS

Guidelines include various DoD, AMC and DA regulations governing acquisition, business development and strategic planning. Guidance is also in the form of basic administrative policy statements and requires the application of judgement and discretion in determining intent. Incumbent must interpret and adapt guidelines when necessary.

FACTOR 4. COMPLEXITY - FL 4-5 - 325 POINTS

Difficulty exists in identifying the nature of the issues or problems encountered. The work involves implementing basic changes to planning, controlling and budgeting STRICOM's activities and allocating its resources.

FACTOR 5. SCOPE AND EFFECT - FL 5-5 325 POINTS

Incumbent has responsibility for maintaining active affiliation with other strategic planning and business development activities throughout AMC. Analytical studies often lead to realignment of functional responsibilities, expansion of activities or divestiture of functions. Results of work are critical to the STRICOM mission on a long term and continuing basis.

FACTORS 6&7. PERSONAL CONTACTS/PURPOSE OF CONTACTS
FACTOR LEVEL 3D - 280 POINTS

Contacts include management and employees within STRICOM, AMC, and Department of the Army moderately unstructured settings. These contacts will take the form of meetings, discussions, and briefings. The purpose of these contacts is to justify and explain findings, foster better understanding and settle matters involving issues such as recommendations affecting resources and programs.

FACTOR 8. PHYSICAL DEMANDS - FL 8-1 - 5 POINTS

The work is primarily sedentary.

FACTOR 9. WORK ENVIRONMENT - FL 9-1 - 5 POINTS
